1. There are 300 fast boats on order from the Berlin Yacht-Werft, called "school boats" and of the type already built by the Thälmann yard, 16 m long. The locomotive works at Hennigsdorf has taken over construction of 56 of them, as the Yacht Werft is unable to finish them in the time required.
2. The yard at Rothensee has laid the keel of a passenger ship for the Volga. It is to be completed by 31 December 1952.
3. The Yacht Werft is also building six KS boats. The purchasing agent for the yard says they are to be armed with the same type of guns as are carried by tanks.
